

A photograph of an outdoor dining area. In the center is a rectangular wooden table with a dark, weathered finish, set for four people with plates, glasses, and cutlery. Four modern chairs with light-colored wooden frames and dark, woven backs are arranged around the table. The furniture sits on a deck made of wide, horizontal wooden planks with a distressed, multi-colored finish. In the background, a metal railing separates the deck from a view of the ocean and a large, leafy tree. The sky is overcast.
